

Together, we can create brighter futures!

Join our team for a year of service starting in August.

Minnesota Reading Corps and Minnesota Math Corps are now hiring tutors to serve in preschools, elementary schools and middle schools.

Make a difference for Minnesota students.

Get hands-on experience.

Get a paycheck and benefits.

Earn money for tuition or student loans.

We are seeking applicants who:

- Can commit to working with students every day during school hours from August 20, 2017 to June 23, 2018
- Have a strong desire to support PreK or K-3 students developing literacy skills or 4th – 8th graders developing math skills. (Education degree not required – we provide training and onsite coaching)
- Are resilient, flexible and open to feedback
- Have reliable transportation to get to their service location daily
- Are citizens, nationals, or lawful permanent resident aliens of the U.S.

Schedule

Primarily school day hours, Monday through Friday

Choose from 3 positions:

- 900 hours (average 25 hrs/week)
- 1,200 hours (average 35 hrs/week)
- 1,700 hours (average 45 hrs/week)

Position starts August 20, 2017 and ends June 23, 2018

Must be available for training on August 22-25 from 8:30 am – 4:30 pm in the Twin Cities

Benefits & Compensation

- Living allowance of $574 (1,700 hours), $424 (1,200 hours), or $287 (900 hours) paid every two weeks
- Education award of up to $5,815 (1,700 hours), $4,138 (1,200 hours), or $2,907 (900 hours) to repay student loans or use for future tuition ■ Student loan forbearance available ■ Health insurance for full-time tutors
- Coaching and professional development provided!

There are limited positions available!
Apply now at: <http://www.readingandmath.net/>

