Relieve the stress with professional advice

We can help relieve the stress you may have when dealing with legal matters. You are eligible to receive up to a 30-minute in-person or telephone consultation per legal matter with a qualified attorney to recommend the most appropriate course of action.

If you require additional services or in-person representation, you have the option of retaining the EAP-referred attorney. You will be responsible for fees incurred if you choose to accept representation from an EAP-referred legal service. You may receive rates discounted up to 25% off the attorney's hourly rates.
